ib: Beyoncé's Renaissance and SOPHIE's musical vision

FOO TANG FUNCTION

come to doms lounge on nov 16 for a communal, musical, and vibrational renaissance for healing through unapologetic flamboyance and a shared lack of inhibitions (a.k.a a party)! join us for a night where hyper-pop meets the history of hip-hop, bringing together explosive sounds and shared energy for a reimagined experience as we reimagine and celebrate who we are and who we're becoming through laughter, music, and the freedom of self-expression.

THEME: HYPERSSANCE

you are immaterial,

you are the concept,

you are the theme,

you are the music,

you are the visuals, baby

Bring bold colors, textures, and shapes that display your intrinsic self! Wear an outfit that channels an inner renaissance you've been waiting to unveil, let every detail reflect the essence you hold within.

open to all.
